

Penguins, Cowes and Beds on Phillip Island

Glen Isla House at Cowes, Phillip Island

Arguably the Island's best accommodation. Its about time such luxury was imposed upon Cowes, but as they say, miracles take a little longer. Glen Isla has the elements that make a short-break from the rat race seem like a holiday: supremely comfortable accommodation, refined dining, large landscaped gardens, a touch of history, stroll to the beach, friendly hosts.

The Anderson Cottage is the ultimate private escape - a spacious gables cottage with four-poster bed, gas log-fire, spa bath (of course) and champers in the fridge. There's another cottage and guesthouse rooms too - chic without glitz plus lounge/dining room where breakfast is served at a civilised hour (your choice). Staying for dinner is highly recommended - Glen Isla owner Ian Baker is almost a qualified chef, and he has a classy wine cellar!

Peter Robinson

Travel Write and Photographer

The article above appeared in The Sunday Age Travel on 14th November 2004